

Safety air guns

Product overview

The safety air guns shown in this spread are split into two groups. The products on the left are safety air guns capable of handling the most common blowing jobs. On the right, we present safety air guns specially designed for demanding applications where extra powerful blowing force is necessary.

NORMAL BLOWING FORCE

1/4"

Pro One Pages 104 – 107

- Silvent's most advanced safety air gun with multi-Laval technology
- Ergonomic, quiet and efficient

MODELS

Pro One
Pro One+

1/4"

007 – SERIES Page 108 – 113

- Has revolutionized the safety air gun market
- Unique characteristics: top connection, variable flow, etc.

MODELS

007-S	007-L	007-P	007-R	007-Z
008-L	BG-007	007-MJ4	007-MJ5	007-MJ6

1/4"

500 – SERIES Pages 114 - 119

- Silvent's first generation safety air guns
- Balanced performance, safety and size

MODELS

59002W	500-S	500-L	500-P	500-R
500-MJ5	500-MJ6	500-Z	501-L	5920
530

HIGH BLOWING FORCE

3/8"

2055-A-SG

2000 – SERIES

Pages 120 – 125

- 5 times stronger than a conventional safety air gun
- When extra force is necessary and users prefer a safety air gun of conventional design

MODELS

2055-A-SG	2053-L-SG	2055-S	2804-R	2973
2050-S	2050-L	2220-L

1/2"

767-L

750 – SERIES

Page 126 – 129

- 12 times stronger than a conventional safety air gun
- Perfect where blowing force and durability are key

MODELS

767-L	757-L	755-L
753-L	758-R	750-W

3/4"

4015-LF

4000 – SERIES

Page 130 – 133

- 30 times stronger than a conventional safety air gun
- Equipped with dead man's grip

MODELS

4015-LF	4020-LF	4010-S
4015-L	4020-L	4010-SF